FAQ's

(Frighteningly Anxious Questions)

Q. Are there Singing and Non-Singing roles available?

A. As Addam's Family is a Musical- ALL roles require singing. Except for Thing.

Q. What do I need for auditions?

A. Please prepare a verse & chorus (approx. 32bars) of a song in style of the show. (Think; Bat Boy, Young Frankenstein, Beetlejuice etc.) Also bring your own backing track-will have a speaker and hook up- phones ok. No accompanist on site. Sides will be on site for Cold Reads and will be assigned as needed by the director. Lastly, please fill out an audition form online or at the time of audition with ALL the requested information including any schedule conflicts.

Q. Will I have to dance?

A. There are a few numbers that incorporate everyone. We ask for your attempt at the choreography and if not the best suited, we can look at incorporating you in a different capacity in said scene. You simply must try.

Q. Are there Non-Speaking roles available?

A. Both 'Thing' and 'Cousin It' are non-speaking. There are also several Ancestors that will sing, but not have lines.

Q. Are there any parts for minors/kids?

A. Yes. Addams Family is a multi-generational production. Cousin It (Non-Speaking) and Pugsley (Singing/Speaking) are meant to be played by actors under the age of 16. Minimum age for involvement is 10. We also have Ancestors that can be played by actors as young as 16.
